Smith & Wesson Performance Center Model 686 Plus

Geared toward competitive shooting, the Performance Center 686 Plus gives you more rounds and performance-based enhancements. A Performance Center tuned action is the heart of the revolver giving the shooter a light single-action and light double-action press aiding in faster and more accurate shots. The high visibility orange front sight makes acquiring a clean sight picture easier, and the adjustable rear sight gives you the opportunity to fine-tune. The Speed Release Thumbpiece is positioned for easy access and lets you reload quickly to get back on target. Get the best from the Smith & Wesson Performance Center.
